

Review Method Development Group

The Review Method Development Group (RMDG) will make recommendations to the Access Recognition and Licensing Committee (ARLC), on the development of the AVA review method.

Remit

The RMDG will:

- make recommendations on, and oversee the review and development of, the AVA review method
- advise the ARLC on other associated changes to the Recognition Scheme that may result from proposed developments

Membership specification

- the Chair (who will be a member of the ARLC)
- Between six and eight others. Members will be current AVA reviewers, and will include AVA officers, as well as those working in the FE and/or HE sectors
- QAA officers will be in attendance, as appropriate, to support and advise the Group.

Membership is intended to bring together a group of individuals with expertise relevant to RMDG's remit, rather than on the basis of representation of particular constituencies, and membership is not transferable

Appointment to the RMDG

All appointments and reappointments are made by the ARLC.

Term of office

Members are appointed to the RMDG for one year, with a possible extension for a further term of one year.

Quorum

Meetings of the RMDG are quorate when at least 50 per cent of members (including the Chair, or a nominated deputy) are present.

Frequency of meetings

The RMDG will meet four times during the 2009-10 academic year.
